Re: Letter of Recommendation
Precision Contracting
Joe Dubbels

To Whom It May Concern:

I would like to give an outstanding recommendation for Joe Dubbels, the owner of Precision Contracting.

I have worked with Joe on innumerable projects over the course of almost 20 years, and I can say without hesitation that he is the best.

From the smallest of interior finish-outs, to large scope, high-end design projects, his understanding of design intent, attention to detail, and construction knowledge all contributed to successful results for our clients. I have also found him committed to providing competitive pricing and persistent on-time project completion. In addition, he has the most pleasant demeanor, and a true collaborative spirit, which is somewhat rare in the construction industry.

Given the choice, Joe Dubbels would be our go-to for all construction projects, and I would highly recommend him.

Sincerely,

INSITE ARCHITECTS, INC.
